Eligibility vs Selection

Schools usually have their own criteria and are looking at what the Student can contribute to their campus

- » Rigor of courses in HS to prepare for career choice
 - Even if grades are slightly lower than would be achieved with lower level courses
- » Test Scores in some cases
- AP courses affiliated with a campus
- » Activities, Talents, Leadership, Responsibility

- » Social Media keep it clean and respectable!
- » Other things about you tell your story

Essays

A measure of writing ability and a window into a student's background

- Don't fear Essays
 - The chance to shine
- Research or ask what kind of questions the College might have
- Write or practice early, go back and rewrite
 - » Have someone you trust review
- Provide what is asked for not more, not less
- Tweak essays to meet duplicate requests rather than start over
 - » Be sure to answer the question or address the topic
 - » Ask family and friends to recall how you met the questions sometimes you forget!
- Show, don't tell, be concise, consider it a face to face talk
 - » Get the point, then personalize through examples

Early Decision vs Early Action

Early Decision

- » If accepted, school expects you to commit and withdraw other applications
- Ask about financial aid determine if you can afford it

Early Action

If accepted, not binding - can commit but still consider other options

Financial Aid exceptions

- » Decisions can be changed if deemed unaffordable. review carefully with timing of choices
- » Use Net Price Calculators
- » Attend Financial Aid Night

Research Price

Review Financial Aid Webpages

- What are the costs to attend?
- » What internal scholarships are available?
- Does the School participate in Financial Aid Programs?
- Does the school have a Tuition Payment Plan?
- What can you and your family afford to contribute?
- Does the cost match my potential salary?
- » THERE IS AN OPTION FOR EVERYONE!
- » USE Net Price Calculator on the Fin Aid page
